ROBERT ALLEN, brother to William 1 whose name appears on the petition with those contemplating a removal to Jeffrey's Creek, from Salem, "to erect a village there," did not settle there but removed from there to Gloucester, Mass. He came to Salem, Mass., as early as 1637, and united with the church in 1642.

In 1650, a committee from the church in Pequot (New London, Conn.) waited upon Rev. Mr. Blinman, at Gloucester, Mass., and perfected arrangements for his removal to Pequot, and his settlement as pastor of the church there. A grant of land was confirmed to him on Dec. 20, 1650.[1]

The removal took place in March, 1651. Twenty families accompanied Mr. Blinman from Gloucester, but in 1653, some of them returned to Gloucester, leaving twelve families who became permanent residents. Among these was Robert Allen. These received a grant of six acres each for house lots adjoining each other, and the locality was known as "Cape Ann Lane."

Mr. Allen added large portions of land to his grant by purchase and otherwise. In 1669 he became a citizen of Norwich, but did not remain there for any great length of time. Relinquishing his grant there to his son John, he returned to his farm in New London, where he died in 1683, aged seventy-five years.

In 1668 he was freed from military duty, which was a privilege rarely accorded to a man under sixty years of age, at that time.

In the distribution of his estate after his death, the following children are named :—1. John, who married Elizabeth Gager, Dec. 24, 1668 (he settled on the paternal estate, built a house and warehouse near the river, since known as "Allyn's Point") ; 2. Sarah, married George Geer ; 3. Mary, married Thomas Parke ; 4. Hannah, married Thomas Rose ; 5. Deborah, then unmarried, afterwards married John Gager, jr. Of these John, Sarah and Mary were baptized at Salem, Mass.

In the division of his estate, John received £133. Each daughter £66 : 6 s.

The descendants of Robt. Allyn have occupied public offices of importance, and are noted for their interest in public affairs, being an enterprising and energetic people.

Allyn's Mountain, on his farm at Allyn's Point, was the place to which the people were accustomed to resort in times of danger from Indians, or from the sea, whence the prospect is wide and far-reaching.

From this place on Sept. 6, 1781, the conflagration of New London was witnessed by the women and children whose husbands and fathers had hastened to the defence of that city. In the war of 1812, the squadron of Commodore Decatur was blockaded in the river near by, and on this hill his men threw up a redoubt and kept a sentry to watch the movements in and near New London Harbor.

The Lee family of Manchester, having been so long identified with the Allen family, it may be of some interest to the members of each family to incorporate the following paper into these notes. It was brought to this country by a Mr. Lee (Samuel?) from England, and has been in the Lee, afterward Allen, family for a great number of years. The original was engrossed on sheepskin, and is well remembered by many now living.
